

Software Practices Immersion – 1 day Boot Camp

AGILE PROJECT MANAGEMENT & PROJECT LEADERSHIP

(This Program is Registered with PMI, USA and entitles PMPs to claim a credit of 7 PDUs online)

Program Objectives

This program offers a strategic orientation on Agile Values and Agile Project Leadership Concepts to management stakeholders of an Agile Software Development Enterprise.

Management Stakeholders (Senior Managers, Business Managers, Delivery Managers, Project Managers, Quality Managers and HR Managers) will understand the implication of Agile Leadership on their respective functions.

Enterprise Agility Concepts from APLN's Declaration of Independence, Lean Software Development and emerging Agile Management Paradigms will be discussed.

Participant Profile

Agile Management Stakeholders, Agile Project Leaders, Agile Project Stakeholders, Scrum Masters, Product Managers, Product Engineering Group Members, Quality Managers, Business Managers, Delivery Managers, HR Managers

Program Schedule

Start Time: 9.30 am End Time: 5.30 pm
2 coffee breaks of 15 mts each and a lunch break of 45 mts

Program Coverage

- Introduction to Agile Concepts
- Agile Values and Principles
- Agile Management Imperatives – APLN's Declaration of Independence
- Integration of Agile Values across the Enterprise Systems and Functions
- Implications of Agile on Business Policies (Sales, Marketing and Customer Management)
- Implication of Agile on People Management and HR Policies
- Implication of Agile on Quality and Process Policies
- Implication of Agile on Project Management- Adaptive Planning
- Implication of Agile on Team Dynamics and Team Working Environment –Facilities Planning
- Imperatives of Collocation in Agile
- Imperatives of Organizational Structure and Hierarchy on Agile
- Imperatives of Empowerment and Servant Leadership in Agile
- Enterprise Agility in an off-shore distributed software development

Program Faculty

This Boot Camp is moderated by our Managing Director, S.M.Kripanidhi. Kripanidhi has over 29 yrs experience, the last 20 years in the IT Industry. He has managed and executed over 35 software projects of size ranging from 20 to 200 man-months and has successfully managed the design and development of 6 software products.

In the last 8 years, he has conducted over 100 open workshops, over 500 in-house programs on Software Project Management, Agile Methodologies, Software Requirements Engineering, Software Estimation and other Software Engineering and System Engineering Disciplines

He has been involved in extensive research and practice of various Agile Methodologies and coaches software teams implement these practices. Kripanidhi has designed, developed and delivered customized programs for Centre for Technical Training (CTT), Philips Research Labs, Eindhoven, The Netherlands for their software professionals and technical managers worldwide. He is also an accredited trainer for LogicaCMG to deliver their proprietary project planning and tracking module for their project managers worldwide. Kripanidhi is a contributing author to the Agile Product and Project Management Centre at Cutter Consortium, USA (www.cutter.com)

Kripanidhi is a Certified Scrum Master, Certified Lead Assessor: ISO-9000 Quality Systems (1993), Certified Management Auditor (1990), Certified Business Analyst (1991) and a Trained Trainer (1989)